++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A mainly cloudy and occasionally wet day.

Today:
Rather cloudy with rain or showers, this heavy at times, particularly during the morning. Best of the limited brighter spells during the afternoon and to north of A96. South to southwest winds occasionally freshening across east coasts. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud and rain clearing eastwards during the evening to leave clear spells and a few isolated showers, these largely restricted across Moray and western Aberdeenshire. Southwest winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Mostly dry and bright by day, with any isolated showers confined to far west. Cloud building from northwest towards early evening, bringing increasing risk showery rain into evening and overnight. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold snap Thursday, early Friday, with blustery showers, wintry over hills, and strong northerly winds. Turning drier late Friday, then milder Saturday as winds back southwest, pushing rainbands across area.
